

Professional Profile

MELISSA KRISCHUK
Broker Associate

CAREER SUMMARY

Melissa Krischuk joined Column Commercial Partners to pursue her passion for commercial real estate and networking with other business professionals. In addition to joining Column Commercial, Melissa owns and operates four Yogurtland franchises in the Denver Metro area. As a franchisee responsible for four Denver locations she is in charge of site selection, new store development, training and leadership, marketing, as well as financial and operational management. Melissa has been recognized by Yogurtland Franchising, Inc. for her outstanding performance and has received ‘Franchisee of the Year’ and ‘The Resilience Award.’

Melissa began her real estate career in 2004 at a full service commercial real estate company in Omaha, Nebraska, Magnum Development Corp. Her experience while at Magnum included marketing properties throughout the central United States, assisting in property acquisitions and dispositions, tenant prospecting, property management, construction administration, and research.

Because of Melissa’s combined experience in commercial real estate, business ownership, and operations she is a vital asset for her clients. She knows how to help navigate through the complex real estate leasing process because she has been through the process as a Tenant leasing space and she understands that every business has unique needs.

EDUCATION

- University of Nebraska – Omaha, Bachelor’s Degree, Business Administration specializing in Real Estate and Land Economics
- Real Estate Sales Person License, State of Nebraska
- Real Estate Broker License, State of Colorado

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS & ORGANIZATIONS

- Franchisee Advisory Committee – Yogurtland
- Executive Leadership Committee – Leukemia & Lymphoma Society
- Downtown Denver Partnership